Matinee concert with Art

All students and staff are invited to a concert with art at the Mozarthouse on Monday 13 June 2011 at 11h00 am. The concert is entitled 'Zahl-Farbe-Klang' and you all are invited to attend.

Book this date

Get ready for a once in a lifetime event! Bestselling author Steve Voake is coming to visit the school, and will be running workshops for grades 5-8 in the morning and grades 9-11 in the afternoon. Please note that normal morning lessons will therefore be cancelled for the younger years. Grades 9-11 will attend from 14h00 until 18h00, with no assembly or PE that day.

It will be a fun day for all involved - a great way to learn about writing, about authors, and about how you too could make a profession out of being creative and having fun!

Run, run run and ring

It's getting closer, the start of a new tradition and you will be part of it! 9th June is the very first Bell Race, your chance to get your name engraved on the bell, but you've got to be first to ring it to win it! On your marks and get set for a fantastic event, the only way is up!

1st June 2011

Dear Parents

As the end of a very successful academic year at St. Gilgen International School draws near, it is time to turn our attention to celebrating the many individual and collective successes we have enjoyed together.

With this in mind, on Friday 1st July 2011 we will be holding a formal Speech Day and Prize-giving event to which parents, families and friends of our school are cordially invited. It should be a wonderful way to end the year.

The timetable for this event will be as follows :

- 10h00 Speech day and prize giving : school courtyard (or Soft Space if the weather necessitates)
- 12h30 Buffet lunch at Gasthof zur Post
- 14h00 Departure of students from boarding residences

We hope very much that you will be able to join us. To assist us with planning for appropriate numbers, it would be most helpful if you could RSVP to Mrs. Anita Schleifer on our school reception (a.schleifer@stgis.at) with the number of guests there will be in your group.

Yours sincerely

Michael J Chapman
Headmaster
