WEEKLY 14/10/2011

ST. GILGEN INTERNATIONAL SCHOOL
AUSTRIA

14/10/2011

A splash of colour

This Saturday between 09h00 and 15h30 a lucky group of students will take part in an 'Action Painting' workshop in Salzburg. They will throw, fling, hurl and splatter paint all over canvases and inevitably themselves! Please wear old clothes you WILL get paint on them!

London calling

The IB Visual Arts and Music students will be jetting off for an intensive cultural weekend in London, departing on 21st October and returning on 24th October.

This whirlwind tour will take in some of the most contemporary and influential art galleries, museums and musical events including the Royal Albert Hall.

Translating The Labyrinth

Starting next week, the intermediate French class will be looking at assisting Mrs Bristol and Mrs Paulin with the translation of The Labyrinth.

This incredible documentary film, relating the events of the Holocaust through the drawings of one who arrived on the very first transport into Auschwitz, has won awards wherever it has been presented. A joint project between Mrs Bristol and Mrs Paulin enables our very own students to be involved in the translation of this into French! Translation has hit the big time and it is so exciting that our very own students can be involved!

Apply for Africa

New plans are underway for StGIS's expedition to Africa. We will now be taking a group of students to Tanzania to work with an orphanage in the town of Letho. The dates of the trip have yet to be finalized however students wishing to be part of the expedition should submit a letter of interest to v.cicero@stgis.at no later than Friday, 21st October. Your letter should include: why you are interested in going on the expedition; what skills or qualities you will bring to the group; and what do you expect to gain from the experience.

It's not just singing, it's singing in colour!

ALM sing competition

It's the red... the blue...and yellow, singing for ALM pride and putting on a show.
Pop rock and soul, we've got the lot,
November the 12th is the date that's hot.
Each ALM will sing two amazing songs,
Not too short and not too long.
Save the date and we'll save you a seat,
Get ready to sing and tap your feet.
We're rocking the house and showing no fear,
It's the first show of many that we'll do every year.
Join us next month, catch the fever,
and please don't worry, there's nothing by Bieber.

To find out more about the what where and when,
Please email J House, V Seaman, J Wren.
