WEEKLY 21/10/2011

ST. GILGEN INTERNATIONAL SCHOOL
AUSTRIA

21/10/2011

London calling

Regents College from London and Jacobs University from Bremen visit us at 14h00 on 8th November. Please email Ms Moore if you are interested in attending their presentation on Business courses and other degree specialties in Sciences, Humanities and Social Sciences.

Aptitude and altitude

Good luck to the Oxbridge applicants: Kerstin, Melanie, Michaela, Michele and Sonja who are all sitting their aptitude tests on 2nd November. Special warm wishes to Michaela who will be taking her test with the Tuareg in the Moroccan desert at altitude!

Go West

Grade 11 students interested in attending a US university will have a workshop on Saturday, 19th November at 08h00 in the Conference Room.

Morocco Bond

The IB Geography students head to Morocco at 03h00 on Thursday 27th October for 9 days of adventure in Marrakech, the High Atlas mountains and Sahara desert. Wish us luck. Film and photos await on our return.

Climate Change is here

From the 7th -11th November, four groups will be around the campus filming their Climate Change videos. The Oscars will then be awarded to the winning production team, date TBA.

Look to the hills...

The peaks are turning white, so why not bring your ski and snow gear back to school after the break. Get set for a winter wonderland and a fantastic season of sport!

21st - 24th October

IB Visual Arts and Music trip to London

25th October

Tea time for parents of Grade 5 students, 16h00 in room 1630

27th October - 4th November

IB Morocco trip

8th November

Visit by Richmond College, London and Jacobs University, Bremen.

12th November

ALM Sing, 09h30 - 12h30

New school hours

After half term there will be a shortening of lunchtime and this will affect the timings for the school day. Lesson start and finish times will shift, but lesson duration will be unchanged.
