WEEKLY 20/01/2012

ST. GILGEN INTERNATIONAL SCHOOL
AUSTRIA

20/01/2012

Play on in 2012

After the success of 'The 39 Steps', StGIS Theatre will be producing Arthur Miller's 'The Crucible'. The eager cast will be rehearsing from 14h00-17h00 on Fridays. This rehearsal slot is an allocated activity and all cast must attend all rehearsals. We look forward to showcasing the amazing talent of StGIS Theatre once again at Easter!

SAT down and ready to learn

As you may have read, St. Gilgen International School has been designated as an official Testing Site for the U.S. College Board SAT exam. The first exam will take place on 28th January. Three of our students and one guest student are currently scheduled to sit our initial exam.

An orchard with year-round growth

Orchard Creative is the new design agency here at StGIS with real clients from seven nations. On 13th February, 13 students will experience a full working day in the creative world. Designers and planners will kick things off with a breakfast agency meeting followed by studio time to develop work for our global clients. Super Ski Stars

StGIS ski team competed admirably at Fanningburg last week. We competed against three bigger schools (Munich International / Vienna International / Danube International) and came home with three medals. This is a wonderful effort! Anna Leitner came 3rd in the Senior Ladies slalom. Petr Ponomarev came 2nd in the Boys Slalom and 3rd in the Boys Giant Slalom.

Other team members that performed very well were Kami Krista, Patrick Woelffer, Ernst von Puttkamer, Timofey Kolpakov, Lisa-Marie Leitgeb, Gabriel Marian and Noah Fiene. Nearly all these team members finished mid field or higher, while Patrick and Timofey finished all their races in their first ever ski race weekend. They are now hungry for more.
