St. Gilgen International School is a new and expanding International school committed to investing in all of our staff and to encouraging every student to achieve excellence. We are an ambitious learning community with high aspirations and high expectations. The school is located in the heart of the Austrian lake district, surrounded by outstanding natural resources.

We are seeking to appoint enthusiastic and innovative teachers to join our growing faculty from September 2012. The persons appointed will be passionate teachers who insist upon the highest quality of teaching and learning. They will also need to be willing and able to contribute to the extra-curricular and residential nature of this exciting boarding school.

The posts are tenable from the 1st September 2012.

To find out more about the school please refer to the document, 'Further information' on our website : www.stgis.at

Please apply with a CV and supporting letter addressed to the Headmaster, Mr Michael Chapman, which can be either posted to the address below or sent via email: vacancies@stgis.at
